The Licensee may, upon proper completion of this form, occupy location at Sandbach Market onday subject to compliance with the following conditions:-

1) GOODS TO BE SOLD

Signature -----

 It should be noted that you may have been selected for this stall because at the time of allocating you were also awarded other stalls. If this is the case and should you terminate this stall you may risk losing the licence on those other stalls.

No articles or goods other than those defined above must be offered or exposed from the stall. In case of dispute as to the type of articles or goods included in the definition above, the decision of the market management shall be final.

Request for a change on commodities may be granted after the licensee has been issued which must be approved by Market Management, subject to such changes complying with the council policies, regulating and controlling the clashing of goods. Requests for changes will not be granted if such change results in an increase in the number of traders selling, commodities which in the market managements opinion are already sufficiently represented on the market.

Any change or addition of commodities will require the issue of a new licence for the stall.

Payment of Fees

All tolls and charges for the use of stall(s), are to be paid each market day on demand to the Market Officer appointed for the purpose of receiving the same.

Rules and Regulations

In addition to this licence the market has a full rules and regulations appertaining to this licence. A copy is supplied at the time of issuing the licence.
